Certifications: CPA

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

CPA's are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination. In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two year period or 120 hours over a three year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services. The vast majority of state boards of accountancy have adopted the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct within their state accountancy laws or have created their own.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Form ADV Part 2B requires disclosure of certain criminal or civil actions, administrative proceedings, and self-regulatory organization proceedings, as well as certain other proceedings related to suspension or revocation of a professional attainment, designation, or license. Ms. Lindsey Baker has no required disclosures under this item.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Lindsey Baker is a Partner and certified public accountant ("CPA") with EGP, PLLC, a certified public accounting firm. Clients of our firm may also be clients of EGP, PLLC. The services provided and compensation received by Ms. Baker and EGP, PLLC for accounting related activities are separate and distinct from any fees paid for advisory services provided by our firm.

Lindsey Baker is Partner of EGP Holdings, LLC, a commercial real estate rental firm. Ms. Baker's duties as a Partner of EGP Holdings, LLC do not create a conflict of interest to her provision of advisory services through EGP Wealth Management, LLC.

Ms. Baker is also separately licensed as an independent insurance agent. In this capacity, she can effect transactions in insurance products for her clients and earn commissions for these activities. The fees you pay our firm for advisory services are separate and distinct from the commissions earned by Ms. Baker for insurance related activities. This presents a conflict of interest because Ms. Baker may have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any person affiliated with our firm.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Refer to the Other Business Activities section above for disclosures on Ms. Baker's receipt of additional compensation as a result of her other business activities.

Also, refer to the Fees and Compensation, Client Referrals and Other Compensation, and Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations section(s) of EGP Wealth Management, LLC's firm brochure for additional disclosures on this topic.

Item 6 Supervision

In the supervision of our associated persons, advice provided is limited based on the restrictions set by EGP Wealth Management, LLC, and by internal decisions as to the types of investments that may be included in client portfolios. We conduct periodic reviews of client holdings and documented suitability information to provide reasonable assurance that the advice provided remains aligned with each client's stated investment objectives and with our internal guidelines.

Joe Kersey, Chief Compliance Officer, supervises the advisory activities for our firm.

Supervisor phone number: 501-320-1021

Item 7 Requirements for State Registered Advisers

Lindsey Baker does not have any reportable arbitration claims, has not been found liable in a reportable civil, self-regulatory organization or administrative proceeding, and has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
